Message from our Directors

Steve Wood
Managing Director

Yolanda Chimeno
Principal

British Summer School was founded and is managed by well-known husband-and-wife team Steve and Yolanda.

Steve and Yolanda are first and foremost educators and they have both dedicated their entire professional careers to studying and teaching foreign languages and to working with children.

Steve holds an undergraduate degree in French, a master's degree in French and a PGCE from the University of Cambridge, while Yolanda holds an undergraduate degree in psychology and sciences of education, a master's degree in clinical psychology and the DELTM, a post-graduate diploma in ELT Management.

Having both lived and worked abroad for many years, Steve and Yolanda are seasoned linguists and educators and are both personally acquainted with the many benefits - and occasional challenges - of learning a foreign language in a native country of the language being learned.

Steve and Yolanda have over 40 years' Summer School experience between them and together, they have worked in a multitude of on the ground roles including teacher, welfare manager, and centre director before undertaking more managerial roles.

They are united in their shared passion and belief that children learn best when they feel comfortable and safe, are among friends and are enjoying what they are doing.

British Summer School was born out of the desire to do better for the parents, students and staff that choose us. For many, the BSS brand has become a symbol of quality, of ambition, of progression and of reliability.

Assisted by a dedicated Head Office team, who are as passionate about British Summer School as themselves, Steve and Yolanda run British Summer School in the context of educating children, rather than running a business, and this is what sets us apart.

We increase our students' ability and confidence to communicate and operate in the 21st century.

In collaboration with Swansea University Students for the Exploration and Development of Space

Our courses

Our courses are based on the Framework for 21st Century Learning and are carefully designed not only to develop students' English but also their life, career, learning, innovation, media and technology skills. Every course is inspiring and challenging.

Our portfolio is designed to be developmental and progressive, adapted to the age range of each course. Students can start their British Summer School journey on any course and if they return, we recommend they progress onto a different course within the series.

Students who attend more than one of our courses over a number of summers will benefit from the academic and personal development structure on which the portfolio is built.

Student numbers, nationalities and language quotas are controlled to provide a personal and carefully managed experience for every student on every course.

“I think it’s a good opportunity to know people, to learn and to improve English at the same time.”

Student, Summer 2025

Care of our students

At British Summer School, we place huge importance on the level of care we provide to all our students while they are away from home. We also understand that different age groups require and benefit from different levels of care and support.

SAFETY

All students receive a safety induction, relevant to their age, on the first or second day after arrival.

Most staff are residential and sleep in the same boarding houses as the students.

Every student has a House Parent, who is responsible for their wellbeing not only in the house but at all times during their stay.

The Welfare Manager is overall responsible for students’ safety and wellbeing.

SUPERVISION

Students are supervised in all lessons and sports and organised leisure activities. Different supervision rules apply according to students’ ages and different rules apply on different courses. On campus, students are not supervised at all times, for example during breaks and free time. Off site, some students have free time away from British Summer School staff. See Student Handbook for more details.

STAFFING RATIOS

British Summer School offers a generous staff to student ratio to ensure the safety and happiness of all students.

Our overall general ratio (staff/students) at each centre is at least 1:5.

MEDICAL

Each centre has staff who are authorised to administer basic and prescription medication to students, under the guidance of the Welfare Manager or Nurse.

FIRST AID

Each centre has a number of First Aiders who are trained to deal with accidents and medical emergencies in the first instance. Each centre is within easy reach of a hospital.

CONTACT

When courses are in session, you can contact British Summer School at any time via our 24-hour emergency number.

Different supervision rules apply according to students’ ages and different rules apply on different courses.
